

Middlebury Register.

VOL. XXXII MIDDLEBURY, VT., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1867.

NO. 25.

MISCELLANY.

FROLI: A Mystery.

On How A Coward BECAME A HERO
BY MISTAKE

In the last will and testament of Mr. John Smith of Allsop terrace, Halifax (the instrument may be consulted by the incredulous) at the usual expense of a shilling and pence, will be found a paragraph to the following effect:

"Also I give and bequeath to 'Proll,' whatever or whomsoever that may prove to be, his or her heirs or legatees, the sum of three thousand pounds, per cent per consolidated bank annuities, during my life, to my executors hereinafter named, shall make every reasonable effort for the discovery of the aforesaid 'Proll,' his or her heirs &c., which efforts shall comprise an advertisement twice repeated in a leading London journal, as well as the legal papers of law, medical and Burns him."

"Also I give and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, shall make every reasonable effort for the discovery of the aforesaid 'Proll,' his or her heirs &c., which efforts shall comprise an advertisement twice repeated in a leading London journal, as well as the legal papers of law, medical and Burns him."

"Also I give and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, shall make every reasonable effort for the discovery of the aforesaid 'Proll,' his or her heirs &c., which efforts shall comprise an advertisement twice repeated in a leading London journal, as well as the legal papers of law, medical and Burns him."

"Also I give and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, shall make every reasonable effort for the discovery of the aforesaid 'Proll,' his or her heirs &c., which efforts shall comprise an advertisement twice repeated in a leading London journal, as well as the legal papers of law, medical and Burns him."

"Also I give and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, shall make every reasonable effort for the discovery of the aforesaid 'Proll,' his or her heirs &c., which efforts shall comprise an advertisement twice repeated in a leading London journal, as well as the legal papers of law, medical and Burns him."

"Also I give and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, shall make every reasonable effort for the discovery of the aforesaid 'Proll,' his or her heirs &c., which efforts shall comprise an advertisement twice repeated in a leading London journal, as well as the legal papers of law, medical and Burns him."

"Also I give and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, shall make every reasonable effort for the discovery of the aforesaid 'Proll,' his or her heirs &c., which efforts shall comprise an advertisement twice repeated in a leading London journal, as well as the legal papers of law, medical and Burns him."

"Also I give and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, shall make every reasonable effort for the discovery of the aforesaid 'Proll,' his or her heirs &c., which efforts shall comprise an advertisement twice repeated in a leading London journal, as well as the legal papers of law, medical and Burns him."

"Also I give and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, shall make every reasonable effort for the discovery of the aforesaid 'Proll,' his or her heirs &c., which efforts shall comprise an advertisement twice repeated in a leading London journal, as well as the legal papers of law, medical and Burns him."

"Also I give and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, shall make every reasonable effort for the discovery of the aforesaid 'Proll,' his or her heirs &c., which efforts shall comprise an advertisement twice repeated in a leading